FAQs

Q. When and where will Women in Policing take place in 2021?

A. Women in Policing 2021 will take place in London and online on Thursday, 2nd December 2021. Register your place here [1].

Q. How much does it cost to attend Women in Policing 2021?

A. Public sector rate: 1 place: £295 + VAT | 4 places or more: £250 + VAT
Private sector rate: 1 place: £695 + VAT

Q. How do I register?

A. Registrations can be made online. [2]here [1].

Q. Where will the event take place?

A. The event will be hosted online and in London. At the time of registration, you will be asked to indicate your preference and you will be asked to confirm your choice several weeks prior to the conference.

Will social distancing measures be in place at the London 2021 event venue?

A. Yes. Any social distancing measures required at the time of the conference will be in place, with the safety of delegates and speakers at the heart of the day. A live stream option will be available to those wishing to attend all or part of the event from home.

Given we will be limiting capacity to allow for social distancing on site, early booking is highly recommended to avoid disappointment.

Q. How will I be able to join the event online?

A. A log-in and link to access the online event platform will be provided in the joining instructions, which will be sent out via email four weeks prior to the event.

Q. Can I still ask speakers questions when attending online?

A. Yes, there will be opportunity to ask speakers questions via the Q&A function during each session. There is also an 'up-voting' function, so that you can endorse other participants' questions that you find particularly relevant.

Q. Will I receive event materials after the event?

A. Yes, in the weeks following the event, you will receive speaker presentation slides and on-demand video recordings of all sessions, as well as some on-demand materials that were accessible on event day.

Q. How can I find out about speaking opportunities?

A. To make any speaker suggestions, please contact Claire Walmsley at claire.walmsley@dodsgroup.com [3].
